

Can you eat on a ship?

Eating on Columbus' boat is a bad idea, because Columbus is awful! He is eating a lot! And the crew a plate of salad. Although it's like the wars on the old times. And Columbus says that we need to eat quickly to work later and to eat in silence. Another thing about Columbus is that it he is very demanding.

What to do on The deck?

Being on Columbus's deck wasn't very comfortable. While Columbus sleeps, you have to be on duty. There are a lot of people cleaning the dek because it is very big and dirty. You get very bored because there aren't easy games. In winter it usually rains and, although it rains, you have to keep cleaning the dek. It doesn't smell very good because there are a lot of men that haven't showered in days.

How's life on a ship

You know that a life on a ship is happy and sad, It's happy because it's a new experience. And it's sad because you don't have beds, chairs, desks in the bilge. You need to do your necessities in a bucket. The food is bad because you need to grab the food quickly. You only have 4 hours free. And you need to work a lot of hours. For me, life on a ship is a lot of responsibility.
